

JOIN THE VIRGINIA CATHOLIC CONFERENCE ADVOCACY NETWORK!

The Virginia Catholic Conference, which represents the Catholic bishops of the Arlington and Richmond dioceses in public-policy matters, has created an e-mail advocacy network for parishioners, Catholic-school parents, and others interested in legislative advocacy based on Catholic social teaching. Key features of this network include:

- Free membership
- A guarantee that members' contact information will not be shared with others
- Regular alerts on respect-life, social-justice, and education issues considered by state and federal lawmakers
- Pre-drafted messages that you can send ("as is" or modified to suit your own style) to your elected representatives with just a few mouse clicks in just a few seconds!
- Periodic "news flashes" to update members on the progress and outcomes of advocacy items
- Announcements about periodic advocacy events.

To join this network, please visit www.vacatholic.org, click the "Join the Network!" button, and complete the short electronic form; or complete the short form provided below and mail or fax it to the Conference's office.
