"Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations . . . Teaching them to carry out everything I have commanded you."
(Matthew 28:19-20)

Catholic education refers to the totality of the Church's efforts to make disciples, to help all believe that Jesus is the Son of God so that believing they might have life in his name, and to educate and instruct them in this life, in order to build up the body of Christ. (CF. CCC 4)

An integral part of Catholic Education is catechesis. "Catechesis is an education in the faith of children, young people, and adults which includes especially the teaching of Christian doctrine imparted, generally speaking, in an organic and systematic way, with a view to initiating the hearers into the fullness of the Christian life." (CCC 5)

The following Guidelines for Religious Education are structured around a center; the mystery of the Blessed Trinity and of Christ as expressed in the 4 Pillars of the Catechism of the Catholic Church:

1. The Profession of Faith--Creed
2. The Celebration of the Christian Mystery--Sacraments
3. Life in Christ--Commandments and the Moral Life
4. Christian Prayer--Prayer

These guidelines are intended to assist catechists in fulfilling the mission of the Church to educate her children in the fullness of the Catholic Faith: to believe what the Creed teaches; to participate in the liturgical and sacramental life of the Church; to live a life of love for God and neighbor; and to pray to the Father through Jesus, His Son, in the Holy Spirit.

GRADE 7

I. GOAL: To have the student understand that God's saving action in salvation history culminates in the person and ministry of Jesus Christ and in the eternal life He offers us.

II. INSTRUCTIONAL OBJECTIVES:

A. Profession of Faith - The Creed

The Catechist will help the student to:

1. Recognize that Jesus is both God and man: the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity, with two natures, divine and human, and He is the fulfillment of the promises of the Old Testament. (CCC 51-73; 702-730)
2. Understand that the New Testament is a witness of the ministry and teaching of Jesus and the life of the early Christian Church. (CCC 124-141)
3. Understand that the Gospels are unique sources for the life and teaching of Jesus, and that they faithfully hand on what Jesus, the Son of God, really did and taught for the sake of our salvation. (CCC 124-141)
4. Know that, in addition to the Gospels, the New Testament is composed of the Acts of the Apostles, the Apostolic Letters (St. Paul, St. Peter, St. John, St. James, Jude, Hebrews) and the Book of Revelation.
5. Appreciate and understand central themes in the life and teachings of Jesus: Kingdom of God, Beatitudes, Messianic fulfillment, Paschal Mystery. (CCC 422 ff.)
6. Understand that the New Testament is a proclamation of the early Church's belief that Jesus is Lord, and that He died and rose again for our salvation. Belief in Jesus leads to eternal life. (CCC 748 ff.)
7. Understand that the preaching of Jesus demands a response of faith on the part of His hearers. (CCC 142-184)
8. See faith as a virtue, a gift of God by which we accept as true all that He has revealed to us in Scripture and Tradition, and a personal response and commitment to the Triune God. (CCC 143, 150, 153-156)
9. Understand that through the Paschal Mystery, Jesus showed His love and perfect obedience to the Father's will, and brought the Old Covenant to completion and established the New. (CCC 571-572; 1067, 2175)
10. Recognize that the Holy Spirit was given to the Church at Pentecost and remains present in the Church always. (CCC 731-732; 737-747)
11. Recognize that the Church is the Mystical Body of Christ and the People of God which extends Christ's saving work through the sacraments, her preaching and teaching, her life of witness, charity and service. (CCC 781-795; 831; 858-860; 863-865)

B. The Celebration of the Christian Mystery - Liturgy and Sacraments

The Catechist will develop a deeper understanding of:

1. The various parts of the Mass and by participating in planning a Mass, come to a better appreciation of the richness of the liturgical celebration. (CCC 1145-1158; 1345-1355)
2. All seven sacraments in terms of their essential components (matter and form) and their effects in the lives of those who receive them. (CCC 1210-1666)
3. The necessity of grace to avoid sin, do good and gain eternal life.

C. Life in Christ - The Commandments and the Moral Life

The student will:

1. Recognize that Christian charity and service to others is an integral part of living out our baptismal call to communion with God. This challenges us to live and act with justice and love towards God and our neighbor. (CCC 1691-1695)
2. Appreciate the dignity and worth of each human person, born and unborn, as created by God and made in his image and likeness, with a spiritual, immortal soul united to a body. Both body and soul are destined to participate in the life of the Trinity. (CCC 1700-1715; 355-357; 362-366; 997-1004)
3. Recognize Christ's call to work towards a world built on peace and justice for all peoples by promoting and protecting the dignity of everyone as a child of God. Christ's call also demands responsible stewardship of the earth. (CCC 1928-1948; 2415-2418)
4. Recognize that sin damages, and in the case of mortal sin, destroys our relationship with God. Every sin also harms others and oneself. We sin when we disobey God and His Law, whether by thought, word, action or omission. Serious sin, that is, completely turning away from God, is called "mortal." Less serious sin is called "venial." (CCC 1849-1876)
5. Recognize that the lives of Mary and the saints offer us a model of how we are called to live as followers of Jesus. (CCC 954-957; 967-970; 972)

D. Christian Prayer

The student will learn to:

1. See how the Scriptures portray Jesus at prayer, both publicly and privately. CCC 2599-2606, 2746-2751)
2. Develop a love and reverence for the Scriptures as the Word of God and a foundation for one's life of prayer. Be able to relate the message of Scripture to one's own life.
3. Understand that prayer is a covenant relationship with God brought about through Christ and the Holy Spirit; it is a communion of our hearts with the Trinity. (CCC 2559-2565)
4. See that prayer is the soul of faith, the heart of the liturgy, and that it helps us to be moral. Without prayer, our faith can dry up. (CCC 2655, 2558-2565)
5. Know that prayer includes meditation, contemplation, vocal prayer, liturgical worship, song and other forms of communing with God. The greatest prayer is the Mass. The Bible devotes thousands of passages to prayer, the most unique of which is the Our Father because it comes to us from the Lord Himself. (CCC 2697-2724; 2685-2696; 2761-2776)

6. See in the lives of Mary and the saints that we have examples of how prayer helps one to live the Gospel message. Mary and the saints are models of Christian prayer. (CCC 2763-2684)

GRADE 8

I. GOAL: To have the student understand the meaning of the Church, its mission in the world, and their responsibility to participate in that mission.

II. INSTRUCTIONAL OBJECTIVES:

A. Profession of Faith - The Creed

The Catechist will help the student to:

1. Show how God prepared for the institution of the Church by calling together the community of Israel in the Old Testament, by the life and teachings of Jesus and the gift of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. (CCC 751-780; 709-716)
2. Understand the Church as the institution founded by Christ to continue His saving work to all the world, to teach, govern and sanctify the world. (CCC 748-80; 814; 816; 830-31; 838)
3. Appreciate the characteristics of the early Church as described in the Acts of the Apostles and the Apostolic Letters (i.e., unity in faith and teaching, fraternal charity, devotion to prayer, and the celebration of the Eucharist), and see these as a model for the Church in every age. (CCC 782ff.)
4. Review the doctrine of the Trinity and how the whole Trinity is involved in the work of creation, redemption and sanctification. (CCC 232-267)
 - God the Father is the First Person of the Trinity. He is usually associated with the work of creation.
 - Understand that Christ, the Second Person of the Trinity, is perfect God and perfect man, and as such, He is the fullest expression of what it means to be truly human. We are made in the image of God. (CCC 422-423; 444; 464-69; 1698, 1701)
 - Recognize the Holy Spirit, the Third Person of Trinity, as the gift of strength and inspiration in the life of Christ, the Church and the individual Christian. The Holy Spirit is the Protector, the Advocate, and the source of unity of the Church as illustrated through the Apostolic Succession, Papal Primacy and the Magisterium. (CCC 85-87; 737-41; 857-62; 880-82; 888-92)
5. Understand the hierarchical nature of the Church and the relationship between the Church Universal and the Diocese and the parish. (CCC 871-887)
6. Understand what is meant by the Communion of Saints: throughout the history of the Church, there have been saints, holy men and women, who love God and are with Him in Heaven. They serve as examples of faith, models of virtue, and intercessors on our behalf. (CCC 946-62)
7. Explain the dogmas concerning Mary and what is meant by sainthood. (CCC 487-511; 963-75; 828; 946-59)
8. Explain the Four Last Things: Death, Judgment (Particular and General), Heaven and

Hell. (CCC 1020-1041)

B. The Celebration of Christian Mystery - Liturgy and Sacraments

The Catechist will help the student:

1. Understand that all men and women have a vocation to holiness, which can be lived out in specific ways: Marriage, the single life, the priesthood and religious life. (CCC 826; 1533-36; 1548-49; 1551-52; 1554; 1593; 1638-39; 1658, 1721; 1728; 2013-14; 2028-29)
2. Grow in understanding and appreciation of the Mass, especially the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, the celebration of the sacraments, and other liturgical expressions. Review the Mass as:
 - the highest prayer
 - the re-presentation of Christ's sacrifice on Calvary
 - the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist
 - a communal meal. (CC 1323; 1348-49; 1357-58; 1374-76; 1382; 1391-92; 1396; 1113; 1167-1679)
3. Understand the structure of the liturgical year and how it revolves around the Paschal Mystery (the Passion, Death and Resurrection of Christ). (CCC 1163-73; 1104)
4. Review each of the seven sacraments and what a sacrament is in general: A visible sign instituted by Christ to give grace. (CCC 1114-34; 1213-1666)
5. Understand that genuine prayer involves a consciousness of God's presence in one's life. Review all the prayers the student should have learned up to this point. (CCC 2559-61; 2565; 2590)

C. The Life in Christ - Commandments and the moral life

The student will:

1. Understand that Christ's Sermon on the Mount, which contains the Beatitudes, is the model for Christian life and service and the fulfillment of the Old Law. (CCC 1966; 2763; 1983; 1716-19)
2. Review the spiritual and corporal works of mercy and how one can fulfill them. (CCC 2447-48; 2444)
3. Come to realize that the moral life (that is, how we should act) is based upon:
 - the Ten Commandments
 - the Beatitudes
 - the Sermon on the Mount
 - the two great commandments of love of God and love of neighbor.

These all provide a direction and orientation for one's life and help to answer moral questions and dilemmas. (CCC 2056-74; 1716-199; 1966; 2763; 1983; 1965-74)

4. Understand that the lives and example of the saints show us how to live and practice the Commandments and Christ's law of love.

D. Christian Prayer - Prayer

The student will:

1. Understand that Jesus teaches us how to pray with hearts open to God's will, with attentiveness, perseverance, patience and humility.
2. Understand the ways in which we come to encounter Christ through prayer, the liturgy, the Scriptures, the community of the Church - its life and teachings. (CCC 131-33; 1071; 1082; 763-64; 776; 2625; 2614-15)
3. Understand that the liturgy provides a great richness of prayer:
 - The Lord's Prayer summarizes the Gospel.
 - ❖ It sums up the prayers of the Mass
 - ❖ Directs us to the reality of the Lord's coming. (CCC 2761-2776)
 - There are seven petitions in the Lord's Prayer that encompass the whole of the Gospel: (CCC 2777 ff)
 - ❖ Honor the holiness of God's name by responding to the call to holiness in our lives
 - ❖ Work to make God's kingdom present
 - ❖ Do the Father's will
 - ❖ Ask for the daily bread of God's will, the Eucharist and for the needy
 - ❖ Forgive and be forgiven
 - ❖ Beg salvation from evil and sin
 - ❖ Pleads for strength in the face of temptation.
4. Recognize that reading the Bible is a valuable way of enriching one's personal prayer and helping one participate more actively in the liturgy.
5. Recognize the need for personal prayer.
 - Be able to describe some of the various forms of prayer: Blessing and adoration; petition; prayer of intercession; thanksgiving and praise. (CCC 2626-2649)
 - Review vocal prayer (fixed formula and spontaneous), mental prayer, meditation and contemplation. (CCC 2700-2724)
6. See that Mary is a model of prayerful obedience and loving self-offering for the Church to imitate. The most common form of Marian prayer is the Hail Mary. Other prayers, such as the rosary, litanies, and hymns honor Mary and seek her assistance. (CCC 2673-2679; 971)
7. Know that prayer is absolutely necessary, for prayer and the Christian life are inseparable. When we persevere in love, it is always possible to pray. (CCC 2742-2745)

THE SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION

Preface: Preparation for Confirmation should aim at leading the Christian toward a more intimate union with Christ and a more lively familiarity with the Holy Spirit -His actions, His gifts, and His bidding- in order to be more capable of assuming the apostolic responsibilities of Christian life. To this end, catechesis for Confirmation should strive to awaken a sense of belonging to the Church of Jesus Christ, the universal Church -as well as the parish community. (CCC 1309)

- I. Goal: The student should realize the added strength received in Confirmation as his/her baptismal promises are sealed in receiving the gift of the Holy Spirit, which binds them more closely to the Church and deepens their commitment to be a witness for Jesus to spread and defend the Faith.

Introduction: Since Confirmation deepens one's commitment to Christ and His Church, it is presumed that the student, through his/her previous years of instruction, has a knowledge of the Catholic Faith as it is professed in the Creed, celebrated in the Liturgy and Sacraments, lived by following the Commandments and the moral life, and enlivened by a life of prayer.

II. Instructional Objectives

A. Profession of Faith - The Creed:

The Catechist will help the student:

1. Be familiar with persons who answered God's call in their lives (e.g., the Patriarchs, the Prophets, Mary, the Apostles).
2. Recognize that the effect of Confirmation is the full outpouring of the Holy Spirit as once granted to the Apostles on the day of Pentecost. (CCC 1302)
 - See God as our loving Father who sends us the Holy Spirit through Jesus. (CCC 689; 729)
 - Recognize the sending of the Spirit as the fulfillment of Christ's promises. (CCC 705-706; 728-730)
 - Be aware of the Holy Spirit as the guide and sanctifier of the Church on earth. (CCC 737-741)
3. Recognize the Church as a community of persons who, led by the Holy Spirit, continue the saving presence of Christ in the world.

B. Celebration of the Christian Mystery - Liturgy and Sacraments:

The student will:

1. Recognize that Confirmation brings an increase and deepening of baptismal (sanctifying) grace. Together with the Eucharist, it completes our initiation into the faith and life of the Church by making us full members of the Body of Christ. (CCC 1303; 1306)
2. Understand that like Baptism, which it completes, Confirmation is given only once and imparts on the soul an indelible spiritual mark called the "character" of the sacrament. (CCC 1304-1305; 1285)
3. Know that the sacramental grace given in Confirmation allows those confirmed to spread and defend the faith by word and action as true witnesses of Christ.

4. Grow in his/her understanding of the liturgy of Confirmation within the context of the Mass. (CCC 1293-1301)
5. Identify and understand the sacramental signs of Confirmation. (CCC 1299-1300)
6. Learn the Gifts and Fruits of the Holy Spirit as described in 1 Cor. 12 and Gal. 5:13-26. (CCC 1830-1832)
7. Emphasize that fruitful reception of the sacraments means that the person is in the state of grace. Therefore, before receiving the sacrament of Confirmation, one should receive the sacrament of Reconciliation (Penance) in order to be cleansed for the gift of the Holy Spirit. (CCC 1310)

C. Life of Christ - Commandments and the Moral Life:

The student will:

1. Review the Beatitudes and Christ's New Commandment to love as found in Mt. 5-7 and Lk. 6:17-49. (CCC 1716-1724; 1965-1974)
2. Relate the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy to the mission of a confirmed Catholic and our accountability as disciples of Christ who will judge us on our words and actions. (Mt. 25:31-46).
3. Be encouraged to practice the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy in the student's family, parish, school and community.
4. See their Christian obligation to answer God's call to build the Kingdom of God by striving to be holy themselves and by working to establish Christ's peace and justice in the world.
5. Study the lives of the saints as models of faith and virtue, and in particular, the life of the saint chosen for Confirmation.
6. Study contemporary persons who have worked to improve human conditions in the world as models of faith (e.g., Pope John Paul II, Mother Teresa, Archbishop Oscar Romero, Dorothy Day, contemporary martyrs, etc.).

D. Prayer:

The Catechist will strive to:

1. Encourage the practice of daily prayer as a means to becoming more like Christ and to give public witness to Him in word and action.
2. Recommend a day of retreat in preparation for the sacrament of Confirmation.
3. Use alternate prayer forms: e.g., a novena to the Holy Spirit, Benediction, etc.
4. Understand that the liturgy provides a great richness of prayer.
5. Know that prayer includes meditation, contemplation, vocal prayer, liturgical worship, song and other forms of communing with God. The greatest prayer is the Mass. The Bible

devotes thousands of passages to prayer, the most unique of which is the Our Father because it comes to us from the Lord Himself. (CCC2697-2724; 2685-2696; 2761-2776)

6. See in the lives of Mary and the saints that we have examples of how prayer helps one to live the Gospel message. Mary and the saints are models of Christian prayer. (CCC 2763-2684)

PRAYERS

Sign of the Cross

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Our Father (The Lord's Prayer)

Our Father who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Hail Mary

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Glory Be

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Guardian Angel Prayer

O Angel of God, my guardian dear, to whom God's love commits me here. Ever this day be at my side, to light, to guard, to rule, to guide. Amen.

Grace Before Meals

Bless us, O Lord, and these your gifts, which we are about to receive, from your bounty, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Grace After Meals

We give you thanks, almighty God, for these and all your gifts which we have received through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Act of Contrition

O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended You and I detest all my sins because of Your just punishments, but most of all because they offend You, my God, who are all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of your grace, to confess my sins, to do penance, and to amend my life. Amen.

Morning Offering

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer You my prayers, works, joys and suffering of this day in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world. I offer them for all the intentions of Your Sacred Heart: the salvation of souls, reparation for sin, the reunion of all Christians. I offer them for the intentions of our Bishops and of all Apostles of Prayer, and in particular for those recommended by our Holy Father this month.

Act of Faith

O my God, I firmly believe that You are one God in three Divine Persons, Father, Son and Holy Spirit; I believe that Your Divine Son became man and died for our sins, and that He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe these and all the truths that the Holy Catholic Church teaches, because You have revealed them who can neither deceive nor be deceived.

Act of Hope

O my God, relying on Your infinite goodness and promises, I hope to obtain pardon of my sins, the help of Your grace, and life everlasting, through the merits of Jesus Christ, my Lord and Redeemer.

Act of Love

O my God, I love You above all things, with my whole heart and soul, because You are all good and worthy of all my love. I love my neighbor as myself for the love of You. I forgive all who have injured me and ask pardon of all those whom I have injured.

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of Heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, Our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin, Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into Hell; the third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into Heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty. From thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the Communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

The Angelus

V. The angel of the Lord declared unto Mary.

R. And she conceived of the Holy Spirit.

Hail Mary...

V. Behold the handmaid of the Lord.

R. Be it done unto me according to thy word.

Hail Mary...

V. And the Word was made flesh.

R. And dwelt among us.

Hail Mary...

V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray. Pour forth, we beseech thee, O Lord, thy grace into our hearts, that we, to whom the Incarnation of Christ thy Son was made known by the message of an angel, may by his Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of his Resurrection. Through the same Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession, was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of Virgins, my Mother: to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Regina Coeli (Queen of Heaven)

(Prayer at Eastertime instead of Angelus)

Queen of heaven, rejoice, Alleluia.

For He whom you did deserve to bear, Alleluia!

Has risen as He said, Alleluia!

Pray for us to God, Alleluia!

V. Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, Alleluia!

R. Because Our Lord is truly risen, Alleluia!

Let us pray. O God, it was by the Resurrection of Your Son, our Lord, Jesus Christ, that you brought joy to the world. Grant that through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, His Mother, we may attain the joys of eternal life. Through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Hail, Holy Queen

Hail, holy Queen, mother of mercy, our life, our sweetness, and our hope. To you we cry, poor banished children of Eve; to you we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn, then, O most gracious advocate, your eyes of mercy toward us, and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of your womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet virgin Mary. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.

Response: That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Divine Praises

Blessed be God. Blessed be His holy name. Blessed be Jesus Christ, true God and true man. Blessed by the name of Jesus. Blessed be His most Sacred Heart. Blessed be His most Precious Blood. Blessed be Jesus in the most Holy Sacrament of the Altar. Blessed be the Holy Spirit, the Paraclete. Blessed be the great Mother of God, Mary most holy. Blessed be her holy and Immaculate Conception. Blessed be her glorious Assumption. Blessed be the name of Mary, Virgin and Mother. Blessed be St. Joseph, her most chaste spouse. Blessed be God in His angels and in His saints.

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O prince of the Heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into Hell Satan and all the other evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Prayer of St. Francis

Lord, make me an instrument of Your Peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love. Where there is injury, pardon. Where there is doubt, faith. Where there is despair, hope. Where there is darkness, light, and where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may seek not so much to be consoled, as to console; To be understood, as to understand; To be loved, as to love; For it is in giving that we receive--It is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life.

VIRTUES APPENDIX

It is our goal to make it easier for teachers to pass on "the Faith". The enclosed appendix is an effort in this direction. VIRTUES:

Pre-K and Kindergarten

VIRTUE: PRAYER-There are four kinds of prayer: Praise, Thanksgiving, Sorrow, and Petition. (For Grades Pre-K through 3)

Prayer is the virtue by which you talk and listen to God. "It is the life of the new heart. It is the remembrance of God often awakened by the memory of the heart: "We must remember God more often than we draw breath."¹

SCRIPTURE/READINGS:

Mt. 11:25-26; Mk 14:36; Ep 3:16-17; Lk 7:36-50, 19:1-10; Mt 26.40; 1 Th 5:17; Ep 5:20, 6:18; Jn 15:16-17; Rm 8:14-17; Mt 14:13-21. The Children's Book of Virtues, by William J. Bennett, A Child's Prayer, p. 63.

PRACTICES:

- Think about how good and loving God is to you as you pray your morning and night prayers. (Thank God for all he has given and done for you and tell him you are sorry for offending him.)
- Tell Jesus you love him everyday. Listen as he tells you that he loves you, too. (Praise God because he is so wonderful and loves you so much.)
- If you have problems in school, ask Jesus to help you. (Jesus wants us to ask for anything that we need.)
- Jesus went outside to the garden to talk to his "Abba", Daddy. Each day you can talk to and listen to God while you're outside playing with your toys, pet or riding your bike. (Thank God for all the toys, pets and friends. Praise him for the gift of himself.)
- If there are problems at home, talk to Jesus about them and ask his help. (Jesus tells us to ask and we will receive. He wants us to ask him for what we need.)

VIRTUE: THANKFULNESS

Thankfulness is a virtue by which you express your thanks to God for all that he has done and given to you. You should be thankful for your eyes to see with, your ears to hear with, your nose to smell with, your mouth to speak with, and your hands to do kind things for your mom and dad with.

SCRIPTURE:

Lk 17:11-19; Lk 22:14-19; Rm 1:8-9; 1 Cor 1:4-4; 2 Cor 1:11; Ps 100; Ps 136.

PRACTICE:

- Thank Jesus for his many gifts to you everyday.
- Remember to say "thank you" to anyone who helps you or gives you anything: mom, dad, brothers, sisters, relatives, teachers, friends, etc.

- Thank your parent/s each time they spend time with you.
- Just as Jesus gave thanks to his Father at the Last Supper, thank your parent for every meal he/she prepares for you, even for the lunch that you take to school.
- A great heart is a grateful heart so remember to thank your parents each time they take you to practice and cheer you on during sports, dance, music, etc.

VIRTUE: OBEDIENCE

Obedience is a virtue by which you have a respectful and enthusiastic willingness to do what one in authority tells you to do. A good attitude concerning obedience helps you to grow spiritually.

SCRIPTURE:

Lk 2:51-52; Ps 143:10; Rm 8:14; 17.

PRACTICE:

- Do you think Jesus did what Mary and Joseph asked Him to do? How did He do what He was asked to do?
- When you obey those over you, you are actually obeying God and His laws of love. When you don't "feel" like doing what you are asked, hop to it and do it anyway.
- When your parents tell yo to do something, do it right away, cheerfully.
- Discuss some respectful ways you can respond to those who love you, who are in authority over you and who tell you to do something: mom, dad, grandparents, teachers, baby-sitter, scout leader, coach, etc.
- Respecting someone means doing what you are asked to do when you are asked to do it. How can you make your attitude a better one?

VIRTUE: A SENSE OF WONDER IN GOD'S CREATION

A Sense of Wonder in God's Creation is a virtue which causes us to look at all that God has created and be filled with awe. Look at the world, sun, moon, stars, oceans, trees, flowers, butterflies, fish, puppies, cats and God's masterpiece, people, and know how great God is.

SCRIPTURE/OTHER READINGS

Ps 150; Ps 135; Ps 100; Ps 98; Ps 67. Book of Psalms, Arch Books.

- Memorize the first two stanzas of Psalm 100 and pray it often.
- Tell your mom and dad that you love them each day.

VIRTUE: PRAISE GOD FOR HIS GOODNESS

Praise God for His Goodness is a virtue which causes us to be awed by God's kindness and generosity to all of his people. God has given us so much and all we need to do is to cooperate with his graces.

- Help put the groceries away after mom or dad do the shopping.
- Take good care of your school materials and anything that is given to you for your use.

VIRTUES: RESPECT/COURTESY AND HELPFULNESS

Respect, Courtesy and Helpfulness: God created everyone to be like him therefore we should respect all his creatures. By respect, courtesy and helpfulness, we mean we should be kind and helpful to everyone.

VIRTUE: LOVE AND REVERENCE FOR GOD/CHARITY

"God's Love has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit who has been given to us." ³ Charity is the theological virtue by which we love God above all things for his own sake, and our neighbor as ourselves for the love of God. Jesus says: "As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you, abide in my love." He continues: "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you." Charity is the greatest of virtues. Jesus asks us to love as he does, even our enemies, to make ourselves the neighbor of those farthest away, and to love children and the poor as Christ Himself.⁴

SCRIPTURE:

Mt 25:40-45, 5:44, 22:37-39; Rm 5:5, 8:28; Jn 3:16, 13:34-35; 1 Cor 13:1-13, Lk 10:27-37; Mk 9:37.

- How can you be more generous with your time and talents?

- Think of some ways you can freely give of your talents and time: kindness, charity, helpfulness, thoughtfulness, courtesy, understanding, compassion and unselfishness to those in your family and your friends.
- How can you share your talents with someone who is in need of patience, self-control, joy or gentleness?
- Do to others as you would like them to do to you. Say only kind things that will build people up. Be patient, I'm just learning. Smile, so I know you're friendly.

- Read Scripture each day to find one good deed that Jesus performed for someone else.

- Pardon others who hurt you as you want God to forgive you. When we forgive others, we strengthen our friendship with God, with others, and with ourself.
- How and where can you be more forgiving?

Grade 4

VIRTUE: HOPE - "Rejoice in your hope, be patient in tribulation." (Rom 12:12)

Hope is the theological virtue by which we desire the kingdom of heaven and eternal life as our happiness, placing our trust in Christ's promises and relying not on our own strength, but on the help of the grace of the Holy Spirit. (CCC #1817)

SCRIPTURE/READINGS:

Titus 3:6-7; Cf. Gen 17:4-8, 22:1-18; Rom 4:18; Rom 5:5; Heb 6:19-20; 1 Thess 5:8; Rom 12:12; Cf. Rom 8:28-30; Mt 7:21; Mt 10:22; 1 Tim 2:4.

PRACTICES:

- Each day turn to God many times with the aspiration, "I trust in you."
- Keep in mind that life is short and eternity is long; organize your day and your life around your final goal.
- Jesus is with us each moment of each day, in our happy times and in our sad ones. Share with Him the details of life and ask for His help in all things.
- Spread joy and happiness to friends and family, because of a firm awareness of God's presence and help.
- God has given you people to help you in your troubles - parents, teachers, priests, good friends. Ask for help when you need it from those who are wise and prudent.

RESOURCE: Prayer of St. Teresa of Avila

"Hope, O my soul, hope. You know neither the day nor the hour. Watch carefully, for everything passes quickly, even though your impatience makes doubtful what is certain, and turns a very short time into a long one. Dream that the more you struggle, the more you prove the love that you bear your God, and the more you will rejoice one day with your Beloved, in a happiness and rapture that can never end. (quoted in CCC #1821)

VIRTUE: SIMPLICITY

Simplicity is the virtue by which a person is free from duplicity or guile. It is honest and sincere. A sincere person ensures that his normal ways of acting - his speech, the way he dresses, the way he behaves - is consistent with what his real motives are; he allows other people to know him accurately: he is what he seems. (CB, p. 213)

SCRIPTURE/READINGS:

Matt 6:22; Matt 18:2-3; 1 Sam 16:7; John 1:47; Matt 7:15; Matt 10:16.

PRACTICES:

- Think about how God became man as a little baby - how simple a life He led while on earth - and try not to want everything that is advertised on T.V.
- Speak to Our Lord in prayer in an open, honest, and simple way.
- Jesus, Mary, and Joseph were natural and simple in their obedience to the laws and regulations of their time - paying the temple tax, waiting in line for the Presentation, working in simple, lowly jobs. Try to practice obedience in daily life in a natural and simple way, without any protest or argument.
- Mary asked Jesus for a miracle at Cana. Turn to Mary in time of need; she can still obtain miracles from her Son. This can be done simply and naturally.
- Be honest and open with parents, brothers and sisters, teachers, priests and others who can help you. Admit when you have a problem or need help or don't know the answers.

VIRTUE: FRIENDSHIP

Friendship is the virtue by which people who already know each other through shared interests in work or leisure and have regular personal contact with each other which stems from mutual rapport - each interests himself or herself in the other person and in his or her improvement. There is no friendship where there is no virtue. (CB, p. 230)

SCRIPTURE/READINGS:

John 15:13-15; John 13:24; John 11:3; John 21:6; Matt 11:28; Sir 6:14-15; cf 2 Cor 2:13; St. Thomas, Summa Theologia II-II, 23, 1, Acts 10:38.

PRACTICES:

- Remember each day that Jesus is our best friend. He loves us to the point of giving his life for us. He wants our happiness most of all - even more than we do. Visit Him in the Blessed Sacrament and tell Him you love Him and need Him.
- Ask Our Lord to help you to develop good friendships - with classmates, in the neighborhood, among family members. He understands friendship best and can help you to select good friends and to build a relationship.
- Be cheerful and joyful throughout the day. You will attract many friends that way.
- Don't be afraid to speak up if a friend is doing something wrong. But do it in a courteous way. St. Francis de Sales said that we have to be indignant towards evil while at the same time being as polite as possible towards our neighbor.
- Be a good listener. That means not always talking or "having one better" in a conversation.

VIRTUE: PATIENCE

Patience is the virtue whereby a person bears present difficulties calmly, in a situation where he senses some difficulty or some good which is difficult to achieve. (CB, p. 55)

SCRIPTURE/READINGS:

John 5:1-16; Jas 5:7; cf Matt 18:23; Luke 13:6-9; cf Hos 9:10; cf Jer 8:13; cf 2 Pet 3:9; John 15:20; 1 Cor 13:4; 1 Cor 13:7; Matt 11:28-30.

PRACTICES:

- Think about the sufferings of Jesus on the cross when you are sick or have some ache or pain. Ask Jesus to help you to be patient in suffering.

- Delay having a snack or treat for a few minutes and offer the penitential act for the souls in purgatory or for someone who may be suffering from lack of food or warm clothing somewhere in the world.

- Count to 5 when something or someone irritates you - at school or in the family - and then respond cheerfully and kindly to the situation.

- Finish a project - a homework assignment, practicing a musical instrument, or a chore which has been given to you at school or home - doing the last parts of it as well as the first parts.

- Spend 5 minutes in prayer in Church before Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. If this is not possible, spend 5 minutes of quiet prayer in your room.

Grade 5

VIRTUE: CHEERFULNESS - "Health is the condition of wisdom and the sign of cheerfulness"
(Emerson, quoted in The World Book Dictionary 1969, Doubleday)

Cheerfulness is the virtue by which a person raises the spirits of others by giving comfort and encouragement or putting him in high spirits by giving him joy. It is shown by a smiling face and sparkling eyes.

SCRIPTURE/READINGS:

Phil 4:4; Luke 2:4; Luke 2:10-11; Luke 13:17; John 20:20; Is 49:13; Ps 71:7; John 16:22; 1 Cor 3:11; Luke 8:50; Gal 6:2; Luke 1:46-47; 2 Cor 7:4; Neh 8:10; Sir 30:23.

PRACTICES:

- Make an effort to smile at others - even if you don't feel like it sometimes.
- Try to lift up the spirits of your friends if they are down - perhaps saying something cheerful or telling a joke.
- If someone says something hurtful or mean to you, try to turn it around into a joke or to say something pleasant back to them.
- Try not to have resentful or uncharitable thoughts about others at school or in the family. Try to make an excuse for what they have done, if it is hurtful or mean; forgive them in your heart.
- Carry out chores and other work, like homework, with a positive attitude, offering each task for the souls in purgatory or for the conversion of a soul, or for the change of heart of a sinner.

RESOURCE: (from C. Burke, Authority and Freedom in the Church, p. 143)

"As Chesterton suggests, it is joy not because we are in the right place, but because we are in the wrong place. We were lost, but Someone has found us and is leading us home. It is joy not because we are alright - we are not- but because Someone can put us right. Christian joy comes from facing up to the one really sad fact of life, which is sin, and countering it with a joyful fact that is even realer and stronger than sin: God's love and mercy."

VIRTUE: PERSEVERANCE

Perseverance is the virtue by which we stick to our purpose or aim, never giving up what one has set out to do. Theologically it means continuing in a state of grace leading finally to eternal salvation.

SCRIPTURE/READINGS:

Mark 14:50; St. Augustine, On the gift of perseverance, "Receive the Faith and persevere in it to the end of your life."; cf Mat 11:30; Luke 18:1-8; cf Ex 34:6; Joel 2:13; Luke 1:4; 2 Mac 6:18-31; Rev 2:10; Matt 25:21-23.

PRACTICES:

- Work diligently on homework, finishing it to the last small point necessary.

- Think about the Gospel story of the woman who kept asking the judge for her rights in the middle of the night. Because she persevered, he gave in to her. You can do the same with prayer - keep asking for what you need, even if it may seem to take a long time to get the answer.
- Try to make a resolution to improve - in just one area, such as picking up your clothes in your room, or tidying up a bookcase and keeping it that way.
- Go to receive the Sacrament of Penance frequently. This sacrament gives graces to help strengthen your spiritual and moral life.
- Work to improve study habits by doing something extra (not assigned by the teacher) each week - such as read a short story or do an extra math problem.
- Remember to say night prayers just before bed each evening. Make a brief Examination of Conscience and say an Act of Contrition.

VIRTUE: INDUSTRIOUSNESS

Industriousness is the virtue by which one is hardworking and diligent, carrying out one's jobs, whether large or small, in a zealous and assiduous manner.

SCRIPTURE/READINGS:

cf Mark 6:2-3; Matt 13:55; John Paul II, Encyclical, Laborem exercens, 27; Second Vatican Council, Lumen Gentium, 41; also Gaudium et Spes, 67; Mark 7:37; Col 3:17; Gen 2:15; 1 Cor 4:12; 1 Thess 3:8.

PRACTICES:

- Think of Jesus as a carpenter's apprentice, under St. Joseph, and then as a carpenter after the death of his foster father. He "did all things well" and was very industrious. We can imitate Him by setting about our tasks with enthusiasm.
- In the Gospel story of Martha and Mary, Jesus points out that Mary has "chosen a better part", because she was listening to Our Lord. Try to make your work a prayer by offering it to God and by doing it well for the love of God.
- Jesus spent 30 of his 33 years on earth doing normal ordinary tasks, not seeking to be noticed or praised for each job. Try to work quietly and not always to look for praise or to be noticed.
- The word "diligent" comes from the verb diligo, which means to love, to appreciate, to choose something after careful consideration and attention. A person who works diligently does not rush into things. He or she does work thoughtfully and lovingly. Try to put love into a chore which you don't like doing.
- Try to avoid putting off jobs or wasting time. Time is precious, because it is the treasure you can use to gain heaven.
- Remember to say the Morning Offering each day so that everything will be sanctified.

RESOURCE: "When we contemplate our Lord, we have a better understanding of the obligation that is ours to work well. We cannot pretend to sanctify badly done work. We have to learn to find God in our human occupations, to help our fellow citizens, and to contribute towards raising the standards of the whole of society and of creation." (Second Vatican Council, Lumen Gentium, #41)

VIRTUE: ORDERLINESS

Orderliness is the virtue by which one is able to organize one's life in a systematic, step-by-step plan based on the goals which reflect God's plans.

SCRIPTURE/READINGS:

Mark 12:13-17; John 19:36; Luke 16:1-13; Phil 2:15; Luke 10:38-42; John Paul II, Apostolic Exhortation, Christifideles Laici, 30; Matt 6:33.

PRACTICES:

- Think about the passages in the gospels in which Our Lord points out that we must seek first the Kingdom of God and then everything else will be given to us, and that the lilies of the field neither sow or reap, but that God cares for them and they are arrayed better than Solomon in all his riches. Try to make God the beginning and end of everything you do, by saying a short prayer, e.g., "This is for you, Lord."
- Make time for some quiet time spent with Our Lord in prayer. A few minutes spent in this way, rather than taking away from time for other things, actually makes what you do more effective and sanctifies it.
- Organize your closet, or your drawers or desk or shelves. This will make your life easier, because you will save time when you try to find things.
- Do your homework before you watch T.V. or listen to the radio. Then you will be sure to have enough time and energy to do your work well.
- Plan ahead when you have a project to do for school and get the materials needed in plenty of time
- books, poster board, markers, clay, etc.
- You will be truly happy if you put God first, then others, then yourself. You can remember this with the word JOY (Jesus - Others - Yourself)

Grade 6

VIRTUE: PRESENCE OF GOD

Presence of God is the virtue by which one is able to find God in his or her ordinary life, the midst of the work, out in the street, in the people around during the day and in prayer. When fully developed this virtue means that there is never a moment of the day in which God is not present to us.

SCRIPTURE/READINGS:

Exodus 40:34-35; Exodus 19:9; cf Mark 9:7; Matt 17:8; John Paul II, Encyclical Redemptor Hominis, 7; St. Alphonsus Liguori, How to converse continually and familiarly with God; 1 Cor 10:31

PRACTICES:

- Make sure that there are reminders of God, Our Lady, and the saints around you at home, in your room, on your desk, your walls, and even as bookmarks in your school books. Each time you see one of these reminders, say a short prayer.
- Begin the day with the Morning Offering, say grace at meals, and end the day with night prayers.
- Try to think what Jesus, Mary or the saints would do in a particular situation you are in - perhaps an argument with classmates, a discussion that has gotten into dangerous topics that could be an occasion of sin, watching a T.V. show or listening to music that is not beneficial to your soul. Ask for the grace to imitate them.
- If you feel alone or frightened, remember your Guardian Angel and the presence of God.
- Offer each subject at school or chore at home for some intention - for the Holy Father, for priests, for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and religious life, for the conversion of sinners, for the poor and homeless, etc.

VIRTUE: SOCIABILITY

Sociability is the virtue by which one is able to get along well with people, show an interest in them and communicate well with them. It has to do with a kind of unselfish solidarity based on love of one's neighbor, rather than mere utilitarian motives.

SCRIPTURE/READINGS:

Mark 2:13-17; John 11:11; cf Mark 11:3; cf Luke 2:51; cf Matt 9:7; cf Luke 7:11; cf John 19:26-27; cf Luke 5:19; Matt 11:28-30; Mark 8:2.

PRACTICES:

- Make an effort to talk to someone in the class who is not one of your regular friends. Find out what are his or her hobbies, interests, and talents.
- Join a group - such as a sport team or dance class or service group - and get to know people who are not in your family or your class.

- Practice being a good conversationalist by asking questions and then really listening to the answers given.
- If you notice that someone has hurt feelings - in the family or in your class - be kind to that person and try to cheer him or her up.
- Think of how Jesus was friendly to everyone and ask Him to give you the grace to be a good friend.
- Pray for your friends and family members every day.

VIRTUE: UNDERSTANDING

Understanding is the virtue by which one is able to recognize and comprehend with a degree of sympathy and compassion the difficulties of the position or situation in which another finds himself. It also means being able to comprehend more deeply the truths of the Faith.

SCRIPTURE/READINGS:

cf Isa 11:1-2; Ps 143:10; Rom 8:14, 17; Gal 5:22-23; Catechism of the Catholic Church 1830-1832; 815; 821; 1939.

PRACTICES:

- Realize that everyone is different - made that way by God. Try to understand someone you are having trouble getting along with. Pray for that person.
- Ask for the grace to understand the topics you are learning in religion class so that they will not just be some words to memorize or write down, but that they will be very meaningful to you.
- Parents, teachers, and other adults have difficulties of their own sometimes - headaches, worries, tiredness. Try to understand if you feel you are not being treated as you would like and pray for the adult.
- Ask the Holy Spirit to help you in your studies - Math, Science, English, etc.
- Your vocation at this time is to be a student. It is important that you do your best and offer your work and your talents or sufferings to God. In this way you show understanding for God's plan for you.

VIRTUE: FORTITUDE

Fortitude is the virtue by which one has confidence to speak up or take on a task which may seem daunting or impossible, after he or she has assessed the facts and taken into account the possible risks, and has decided that a genuine good can be achieved. (CB, p. 198)

SCRIPTURE/READINGS

cf John 1:14; 17; cf John 18:37; cf John 8:44; cf John 3:42 ff.

PRACTICES:

- It is not easy to speak up when someone is doing something wrong or using offensive speech, but with the grace of God it is possible. Pray for God's help when you are in a situation in which you should be bold and speak up.

- Read the passages in the Gospel in which Jesus had to go against the crowd, against the popular thinking of the day and try to imitate Him when you are with your friends or your family members.

- Turn off the T.V. or radio when there are scenes or discussions which would offend Jesus if He were watching or listening with you.

- Don't be afraid to tell your friends that you pray or that you believe in God.

- Make the effort to get to Mass every Sunday and to Confession frequently, even if it means inconveniencing someone in the family to take you there.

Grade 7

VIRTUE: HUMILITY "One grain of pride suffices to overthrow a mountain of holiness." St. John of the Cross

Humility is the virtue by which a person recognizes his own inadequacy, qualities and abilities, and presses them into service, doing good without attracting attention or expecting the applause of others. (CB, p. 205)

SCRIPTURE/READINGS:

Luke 18:9; Matt 15:21-28; 1 Cor 12:3; 1 Cor 1:4; Luke 7:1-10; Sir 35:17; Jas 4:6; Matt 6:16; cf Matt 6:5; cf Matt 6:2; Luke 11:46; Matt 23:11; Gal 6:2; Luke 11:52; Ps 33:19; Luke 22:27; 1 Thess 2:7-8.

PRACTICES:

- Humility is the opposite of pride. Pride is essentially competitive. Do I try to beat others at sport or in grades in school, just to show that I am better than they are? Ask the Holy Spirit to help you to see in what ways you could work on humility.
- In conversations try to let the other person tell his stories, talk about himself or herself, share his or her concerns. Listening well and caring about another person's situation is part of humility.
- Think about the Blessed Virgin Mary. She was the most perfect human being ever created, yet she was very humble. She was surprised when the angel appeared to tell her she would be the Mother of God. Ask Our Lady to help you to develop the virtue of humility.
- Pride is a fundamental fault shared by human beings, resulting from Original Sin (a sin of pride and disobedience). Someone has said that our pride will die 24 hours after we do. Write down 3 ways in which you could work during the next week to develop the virtue of humility.
- Not wanting to obey others is part of pride. Try to be truly obedient and pleasant about it during the next week.

VIRTUE: MODERATION

Moderation is the virtue by which a person is able to distinguish between what is reasonable and what is self-indulgent and make reasonable use of his or her senses, time, money, efforts and so on in accordance with true and upright principles. (CB, p. 115)

SCRIPTURE/READINGS:

Luke 16:19-21; Second Vatican Council, Gaudium et Spes, 41, 63; Matt 6:33; John 19:23; Luke 7:36-50; 2 Cor 9:12; Phil 3; 8; cf Col 3:5; Luke 12:34; Amos 6:1; 4-7; Luke 16:19-31; Acts 20:25; 1 Tim 6:10-16; Rom 12:2.

PRACTICES:

- Plan what you will buy when you are out shopping, rather than buying on impulse.
- We live in a consumer society and receive many advertisements - on T.V., radio, in magazines - to get us to buy the latest thing. Try to evaluate some of these advertisements and see by what means they try to get you to buy. How do they persuade you?

- There are extremes in fashion. To practice moderation you could try to wear styles that are modest and show good taste, rather than ones that are the most extreme of what is fashionable.
- Watching T.V. and listening to CD's or the radio can get out of control. Try to limit the amount of time spent doing these and use the time saved to study, to read a good book, or to learn a hobby.
- Remember that everything that you have comes from God and that the end of your life is the salvation of your soul. Can you think of 3 aspects of your daily life in which you could practice moderation and which would help you to have a better grasp of your relationship with God?

VIRTUE: MODESTY

Modesty is the virtue by which a person does not draw undue attention to himself or herself. He or she is self-assured, but not self-absorbed. He or she is temperate in dress, language, and deportment and has a strong sense of the value of his privacy. He or she knows that being a person is fundamentally incompatible with being an object for public consumption. Modesty is, as it were, his body's conscience. (HV, p. 168)

SCRIPTURE/READINGS:

cf 1 Cor 6:13-15; 17, 20; Sir 24:24; 1 John 2:16; cf Matt 5:8; Phil 4:8; Matt 26:41; Ps 50:10; cf Eph 5:2-5.

PRACTICES:

- Try to remember that everything you have is from and for God. We must administer whatever God has given in such a way that we glorify Him to the best of our ability. Make a list of 3 abilities or talents you have and think of some ways in which you can use them to serve God in the next week.
- Think about the clothes you wear and imagine what effect they can have on others - either for good or not. Have a discussion with your classmates about the styles that are in fashion and determine whether they are modest or not.
- Many of the T.V. shows offend against the virtue of modesty by displaying people not properly dressed or by displaying aspects of relationships which should be private. Think about what effect watching these shows could have on a young person's virtue of modesty. How can such shows be avoided?
- Modesty is the safeguard of the virtue of purity. Say a prayer each day for the ability to develop the virtue of purity.
- Modesty also controls ones emotions. If you find that you get very angry or are inclined to be impatient, stop and ask for the grace to be moderate.

VIRTUE: RESPECT FOR OTHERS

Respect for others is the virtue by which we always act in a way that will benefit ourselves and others, and avoid any action which would hurt ourselves or others. Underlying this virtue is the realization that each person is made in the image and likeness of God and has an immortal soul which will live for all eternity.

SCRIPTURE/READINGS:

Second Vatican Council, Lumen Gentium, 11:31; John 15:16; Genesis 1:1, 27; Gen 12; Second Vatican Council, Gaudium et Spes, 12; John 15:12; 1 Cor 13:1; Matt 5:38-48; John 13:34-35; cf Matt 25:31-40; Matt 20:28.

PRACTICES:

- Parents, teachers, priests and others with special authority deserve respect at all times. Make an effort to show respect in a special way to one of these who has an influence on your life.

- Each person deserves respect as a child of God. Think of a way that you can show respect to someone who would not normally get respect - e.g., a homeless person, someone who is dying, someone who is new to your class.

- Everyone is different and must be treated differently. Do you realize that some classmates are not as talented in some subjects, but may be specially skilled in another field? Get to know a classmate and find out his strengths.

- God has shown great respect for all of us by giving us free will and the ability to think and choose. Do you use your intelligence and abilities to serve God and other people? Plan a project in which you can serve others and God during the next week.

- Pray for the grace to be able to respect others as Jesus would respect them.

VIRTUE: PRUDENCE

Prudence is the virtue by which one directs oneself and one's affairs according to the right reason, giving thought to one's actions and their consequences. A prudent person weighs favorable and unfavorable possible outcomes and then decides how to act in light of God's plan.

SCRIPTURE/READINGS:

Matt 10:16; Matt 7:15; Luke 2:47; cf Rom 8:6; Luke 1:37; Luke 19:11-28; Luke 12:54-59; Phil 4:8; Wis 2:24; Ps 143-4; Job 14:2; Jas 1:9-10; Matt 6:34.

PRACTICES:

- Prudence is the mother of virtues and guides every good habit. Can you think why that would be so? Name something you do that requires prudence and good judgment in your life.
- Many people may give you advice on some aspects of your life - what courses to take, what schools to attend, what sports to get involved in, etc. Pick one of these and work out how you could make a prudent decision.
- Being prudent involves being able to get sufficient information to make the right decision. Where can you go to get information that will help you to be prudent?
- Prudence is one of the four cardinal virtues. You can ask for God's help when you have to make a decision about how to act or not in a particular situation.
- Think about the Blessed Virgin Mary. She has been called the Seat of Wisdom. How would she act in a difficult situation you may find yourself in? How would she decide, if she were in your place?

VIRTUE: INTEGRITY

"TO BE DEVELOPED"

VIRTUE: LOYALTY

Loyalty is the virtue by which a person accepts the bonds implicit in his relationship with others - friends, relatives, superiors, his or her country, etc. - so that, as he or she defends and reinforces the system of values which these represent. (CB, p. 133)

SCRIPTURE/READINGS:

Matt 5:37; Jer 4:2; cf Matt 23:13-32; John 1:47; John 14:6; John 8:44; cf John 3:11; cf Acts 1:8; Luke 16:20; Jas 1:8; Luke 1:47; Philem 9:13; Prov 18:19; Gal 6:2; Rev 2:10.

PRACTICES:

- It is good to think about those whom we owe loyalty. Make a list of who these people are in your life and think of one example in which you could be loyal to one of these.

- When a discussion among your friends turns critical of someone who is not there, how can you show your loyalty? What are some ways of defending the person?
- Think of Jesus as He was on the cross after He had been betrayed by His closest friends. What did He do about His betrayers? How can you imitate Him when people let you down.
- Do you need to be loyal to a friend who is doing something wrong - for example, shoplifting, or disobeying his parents? What should you do in such a case? Would it be disloyal to try to get the friend to improve? Or to talk about the friend to a parent, a priest, or a teacher?
- How can you show loyalty to God, or to your Catholic faith if someone attacks them or criticizes them or criticizes you because of them? Think about the Apostles and early Christians. They lived in times very much like ours and were loyal to God and the Faith - even to the point of death at times. Ask for the grace to be able to defend your Faith whenever required.

VIRTUE: OPTIMISM/HOPEFULNESS

Optimism/Hopefulness is the virtue by which one tends to look on the bright side of things. He or she can identify the positive elements in every situation, as well as the difficulties, and then take advantage of the favorable aspects. The obstacles are faced in a sportsmanlike and cheerful manner. (CB, p. 45)

SCRIPTURE/READINGS:

cf Matt 14:13-21; cf Matt 28:28; Phil 4:13; Rom 8:31; Phil 2:15; cf John 16:22; Prov 25:20; Phil 4:4.

PRACTICES:

- When things look really bad and life is difficult, think about how Jesus bore His sufferings. Ask Him for help to see the bright side of each situation.
- Try to have a sporting spirit when there are problems or difficulties to be overcome. Ask for help from a parent, teacher, or priest, if you are not able to solve your problems yourself.
- If there is a difficult project you need to complete, write down a schedule of activities leading to its accomplishment and stick to the schedule until it is completed. Get help where required.
- Realize that God can bring good even out of difficult situations. Also realize that most difficult situations are temporary. Life is short and eternity is long. This can help to get a perspective on events.
- Part of the economy of salvation is that your sufferings can be offered up for the conversion of sinners, for the souls in purgatory, or for some other good in the Communion of Saints. Also, the souls in purgatory can help you, if you pray to them. The saints in heaven can also help you. Keep in mind that you are never alone in this life.
