

Ryan Flood, CFRE
Director of Special Gifts and Donor Stewardship

Ryan builds relationships with parishioners and assists with both current and deferred gifts to the diocese, parishes and schools. He has worked in Catholic fundraising for more than 11 years and has served as the Director of Special Gifts and Donor Stewardship for the Diocese of Arlington since June 2010. Previously, Ryan served as the Executive Director of Catholic World Mission for four years and before that worked as a Gift Planning Officer.

Ryan, with his wife Mary, and their seven children are members of Our Lady of Angels Catholic Church in Woodbridge, VA.
