ENTER THE CCHD CREATING ON THE MARGINS CONTEST FOR YOUTH

DUE: MONDAY, MARCH 5, 2018

THEME: SHARE THE JOURNEY OF YOUNG MIGRANTS AND REFUGEES

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

"YOU YOUNG PEOPLE, MY DEAR YOUNG FRIENDS... BE THE FIRST TO SEEK TO BRING GOOD, DO NOT GROW ACCUSTOMED TO EVIL, BUT DEFEAT IT WITH GOOD."

POPE FRANCIS
ALL ABOUT THE
CCHD “CREATING ON THE MARGINS” CONTEST

WHAT IS IT?

It’s a contest sponsored by the Catholic Campaign for Human Development, a program of our United States Bishops that works to help people get out of poverty. All youth in Grades 7 through 12 are invited to learn about poverty and think about our faith-inspired response, and to submit work in any media that addresses the contest theme: “Share the Journey of Young Migrants and Refugees.”

HOW DO I PARTICIPATE?

1. Read the contest packet and visit the CCHD Creating on the Margins Contest FAQs page at http://www.usccb.org/about/catholic-campaign-for-human-development/multimedia-youth-contest/multimedia-youth-contest-faq.cfm#1 for important contest information. E-mail the diocesan CCHD Office at cchd@ccda.net with any questions.

2. See the contest packet to:
   • Learn about Migrant and Refugee Youth and the Church’s response.
   • Learn about the Two Feet of Love in Action.

3. Reflect on what you’ve learned.

4. Create your multimedia work. Multimedia work in any form is eligible for the contest! Videos, photos, PowerPoint presentations, paintings, drawings, dramas, poems, stories, and songs are some ideas.

5. Use your work to teach others. For example:
   • Share your work with friends and family.
   • If you created a video or song, post it on YouTube or ask permission to perform at a school or parish event.
   • Ask to display your work at your parish or school.
   • You may have even better ideas!

6. Submit your work to the contest by March 5, 2018.
   • Submit work, along with the Contest Entry Form, to the diocesan CCHD Office at cchd@ccda.net. Please put “Creating on the Margins Contest Submission” in the Subject line.
   • All entries from our diocese will be reviewed by a panel of judges. One entry from each grade category (grades 7-9 and 10-12) will be selected and submitted to the national contest by March 31, 2018.
Contest Packet for Youth

2018 Contest Theme:
“Share the Journey of Young Migrants and Refugees”

“Dear young people, do not bury your talents” - Pope Francis
Participate in the Contest with These Easy Steps!

1. Learn about Migration and our Catholic response.
2. Learn about the Two Feet of Love in Action.
3. Reflect on what you learned.
4. Develop your creative work.
5. Use your work to teach others.
6. Submit your work to the contest.
Learn about Migrant and Refugee Youth, Their Stories, and the Church’s Response

- Watch this video to learn about the journeys of unaccompanied migrant and refugee children (5:26 min) and read or listen to the stories of refugee youth. Optional: Video on immigration and the Catholic church (6:42 min).

- Discuss with others: Why do unaccompanied youth, migrants, and refugees leave their homes to come to the U.S.?

- Visit the webpage of the U.S. Catholic bishops’ Migration and Refugee Services. Next, learn about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development, then go to the Poverty USA Map (County Level View), select “Target Population,” and read some of the stories. How is the Church “sharing the journey” of migrants and refugees?

- Go to WeAreSaltandLight.org and find stories about a parish, a school, students, or an organization working with immigrants, refugees, or trafficking victims.

Learn about the Two Feet of Love in Action

Learn about two distinct but complementary ways to put love in action.

1. Learn about the Two Feet of Love in Action. Watch the video 3 Minutes for a brief summary of the Two Feet of Love in Action.

2. Discuss: Are the examples you learned about Social Justice or Charitable Works?
Reflect and Share

2018 Contest Theme
“Share the Journey of Young Migrants and Refugees”

Reflect on and answer the following essay questions. The typed answers will be submitted with your entry form and will be considered in the national judging process. (Each answer should be at least three sentences.)

1. What is one story of a young migrant or refugee that you heard? Are there any ways the story opened your eyes?

2. What are some of the reasons why migrant or refugee youth leave their home countries to come to the U.S.?

3. What are some of the challenges that migrant or refugee youth face after they arrive in the U.S.? How is the Church responding with Charitable Works?

4. What is one example you learned about of how a parish, school, or organization is responding with Social Justice to the needs of migrants and refugees?

5. Why does our faith call us to do this work?

Make a Creative Work

2018 Contest Theme

“Share the Journey of Young Migrants

- After reflecting and writing your essay responses, make a creative work about the theme of this year’s contest (above). Your essay responses are assessed along with your creative work!

- Visit www.usccb.org/youthcontest for all contest rules. NOTE: Entries featuring ANY music, photos or videos MUST have all accompanying permission forms attached to the Entry Form in order to be considered for judging. (This includes but is not limited to: magazine pictures, songs, any person featured in ANY way in a video or picture, music or stock images from the internet.)

- Examples of “creative works” eligible for the contest include: videos, photos, Powerpoint presentations, paintings, drawings, dramas, poems, sculptures, stories, and songs.

- Have fun!
When we learn something new that changes our perspective about the world around us, we should tell others. Remember, one question on the contest entry form is:

- Where did you present your work?
  - Date:
  - Place:

Ideas to Educate Others

- Display your work where others can view it, such as the school lobby, cafeteria, or parish hall.

- Ask your school or parish to host an Open House Gallery and invite friends, parents and community members. You and other youth can present and explain your work. Invite all attendees to join the Justice for Immigrants campaign.

- Share your creative work at existing parish or school meetings (e.g. youth group, homeroom, etc.).

- Share your creative work on social media. You can also share links to the learning resources on p. 3.

- Ask to display photos, text, or URLs of winning entries in your school newspaper or parish bulletin.

- Contact a local coffee shop to display work.
Submit Work to the Contest

You are ready to submit your work!

First, fill out the official entry form on the following pages. Don’t forget the essay questions!

Second, if you are participating in the contest as an individual and not through your parish or school, get in touch with your diocesan contact for the contest to find out about the local submission process. This may be the diocesan CCHD representative or the diocesan coordinator for religious education, youth ministry, or Catholic education.

If you learn that your diocese is not participating in the contest, you can still submit your entry. Contact Charlie Gardner at the CCHD national office at JPHDmail@usccb.org.
