The Diocese of Arlington's metropolitan see is the Archdiocese of Baltimore.)

July 11 • CCS issues decrees on a miracle attributed to the intercession of Venerable Servants of God Maria Antonia Samà and on the heroic virtues of Servants of God Eusebio Francesco Chini, Mariano Giuseppe de Ibarguengoitia y Zuloaga, Maria Félix Torres, and Angiolino Bonetta.

Whether those persons for whom baptism was celebrated with this formula must be baptized in forma absoluta? - affirmative [i.e., such persons must be baptized in forma absoluta.]

attend Mass on Sundays and holydays of obligation granted by Bishop Burbidge to the faithful of the Diocese of Arlington remains in effect until further notice.

MASS | Masses celebrated after 4:00pm on the evening of Sat, 4/15/20, are for the Sunday in Ordinary Time, i.e., with prayers and readings of Sunday. Although the Assumption is of higher rank than the Sunday in Ordinary Time, the choice of Mass also makes a consideration of "precept." That is, because the Assumption is not a day of precept in the U.S. in 2020, precedence in the celebration of Mass is given to the Sunday in Ordinary Time, which is a day of precept (*the faithful are currently dispensed from this obligation).

EVENING PRAYER | On the evening of Sat, 4/15/2020, Evening Prayer II of Assumption is celebrated. Yet, for public celebrations of Evening Prayer at which the faithful are present, Bishop Burbidge permits (but does not require) that Evening Prayer I of Sunday may be celebrated when the Pastor discerns this to be a pastoral benefit for the faithful in his care. Unlike Mass, the choice in the celebration of the Divine Office does not make a consideration of precept, and so for Evening Prayer the higher ranked Solemnity of the Assumption takes precedence over the Sunday in Ordinary Time.
