Catholic Diocese of Arlington

We're here to help you prepare for marriage.

MARRIAGE PREPARATION REQUIREMENTS:

- The Catholic Diocese of Arlington requires 6 months of marriage preparation, beginning initial contact with your parish priest.
- Each couple marrying in the Diocese of Arlington is required to attend a marriage preparation conference such as a Conference for the Engaged (CFE).
- You must currently be meeting with a priest/deacon for marriage preparation in order to register for a conference.
- For full marriage preparation requirements for the Diocese of Arlington, visit:
arlingtondiocese.org/MARRIAGEPREP

ABOUT THE CONFERENCES:

- The conferences are designed to initiate discussion and reflection on key aspects of marriage and family life.
- Presentations are offered by married couples, priests, deacons, and licensed counselors. The priest provides a theological background; the married couples share their experiences and practical wisdom; the counselor speaks from research and practice in healing and building strong marriages.
- A certificate of completion is given to the couple at the end of the conference.
- Our CFEs are held from 8:30AM—3:30PM. Lunch and a continental breakfast are included.
- When they are held at Good Shepherd, Mass will then be offered for attendees at 8:00AM.

QUOTES FROM PREVIOUS CONFERENCES:

"I am marrying into the Catholic faith, and this whole day was fascinating for me to really see deeply into how the Church views marriage and everything that goes into it."

"Our speakers were all great, but especially the priest—he gave some of the most compelling, engaging, fun, persuasive, moving talks I've ever heard from any priest. Wow."

Please feel free to contact Alexander Wolfe, the Marriage Preparation Coordinator for the Catholic Diocese of Arlington at 703-841-3807 or by email at alexander.wolfe@arlingtondiocese.org. I would be happy to help you!
