Dear Parents and Families,

The Office of Faith Formation has compiled the first of many Resource Units for you to use when sharing our Catholic Faith while at home with your children. You’ll find a variety of options, based on the skill levels and needs of those you are teaching. These instructional materials can be modified or adapted to suit your needs. Many are links to resources – others are full-page sources.

Tips (in English and Spanish) are at the end of the listings!

Remember – parents and families are the primary teachers of the faith! Children learn by example and will know the faith by the compassion and devotion they see in you. Live the faith and they will know the faith!!

Sincerely,

The Office of Faith Formation Team
Catholic Diocese of Arlington, VA
