CLARIFICATIONS on LITURGICAL YEAR 2025

- Since December 8, 2024, is the Second Sunday of Advent, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary is transferred to Monday, December 9. The Optional Memorial of Saint Juan Diego Cuauhtlatoatzin, December 9, is omitted this year. December 9 is a day of obligation for the faithful.
- December 9 is the Anniversary of the Dedication of the Cathedral. It is celebrated as a Feast throughout the Diocese and only as a Solemnity at the Cathedral. Since the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception is transferred to Monday December 9 this year and is of a higher rank, the observance of the Dedication is transferred to December 10, 2024.
- December 25, 2024 · Christmas Day falls on a Wednesday in 2024. All Masses during the day on Christmas are that of Christmas Day, with its proper prayers and readings. Evening Masses on Tuesday, December 24 are likewise the Mass of Christmas Day. Evening Prayer I and II of Christmas are celebrated.
- December 29, 2024 · The Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph is inscribed on the Sunday within the Octave of Christmas (or December 30th if there is no Sunday within the Octave).
- January 1, 2025 · The Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God, falls on a Wednesday this year and is a holyday of obligation.
- January 5, 2025 · In the Dioceses of the United States of America, the Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord is transferred to the Sunday between January 2nd and January 8th. Therefore, the proper Vigil Mass of Epiphany is celebrated for Masses after 4:00pm on Saturday, January 4, either before or after Evening Prayer I of Epiphany. The Mass during the Day of Epiphany is celebrated for all Masses on Sunday, January 5.
- January 12, 2025 · The Feast of the Baptism of the Lord is celebrated. Ordinary Time begins after the Baptism of the Lord (Monday January 13, 2025).
- May 31-June 1, 2025 · In the Diocese of Arlington, the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord is transferred to Sunday. Therefore, the proper Vigil Mass of the Ascension is celebrated for Masses after 4:00pm on Saturday, May 31, 2025, either before or after Evening Prayer I of the Ascension. The Mass during the Day of Ascension is celebrated for all Masses on Sunday, June 1, 2025.
- June 22, 2025 falls on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of the Lord. As such, the Patronal Feast of Saint Thomas More is not observed in the diocese in 2025. The Patronal Feast of the Cathedral with the rank of Solemnity is transferred to Monday June 23, 2025.

- November 1, 2025 is the Solemnity of All Saints. In accord with the complimentary norm to canon 1246 §2 confirmed for the dioceses of the United States of America, because it is a Saturday, this year the obligation to attend Mass on this date is abrogated. Evening Prayer II of All Saints is said on November 1.
- November 2, 2025 is the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed. Evening Masses on Saturday November 1 and Masses on Sunday November 2 are of the Commemoration. The Gloria is omitted, the Creed is said. The Prayers and Readings are taken from those Proper for November 2.

SACRAMENT of MATRIMONY

Matrimony within Mass may be celebrated on any day of the liturgical year except on Good Friday and Holy Saturday. Although permitted, Matrimony should generally be avoided during Holy Week. For weddings during Lent, the couple should be catechized about the season's penitential character. On certain days, the prayers and readings must be taken from the liturgical day rather than the Ritual Mass for the Celebration of Marriage (namely, days in nos. 1-4 of the Table of Liturgical Days, outlined below in chronological order beginning with Advent).

Mass for Marriage Prayers and Readings* not permitted | Mass "of the day" is celebrated

† Dec 1, 8, 15, 22, 2024 · Sundays of Advent	† Apr 13-19 · Holy Week and the Triduum	† Aug 15 · Assumption
† Dec 9 · Immaculate Conception	† Apr 20-26 Easter Octave	† Nov 1 · All Saints
† Dec 25 · Christmas	† Apr 27, May 4, 11, 18, 25 · Sundays of Easter	† Nov 2 · All Souls
† Jan 1, 2025 · Mary Mother of God	† Jun 1 · Ascension	† Nov 23 · Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe (34 th Sunday in Ordinary Time)
† Jan 5 · Epiphany	† Jun 8 · Pentecost	† Proper Solemnities (Solemnity of the Anniversary of the Dedication of One's Own Church; Solemnity of the Title of One's Own Church)
† Mar 5 · Ash Wed	† June 15 · Holy Trinity
† Mar 9, 16, 23, 30, Apr 6, 13 Sundays of Lent	† Jun 22 · Corpus Christi
† Mar 19 · Saint Joseph	† Jun 24 · Nativity of John the Baptist
† Mar 25 · The Annunciation	† Jun 27 · Sacred Heart of Jesus
	† Jun 29 · Sts Peter and Paul

When Matrimony is celebrated within Mass on the days listed above, the elements proper to Matrimony (entrance, consent, rings, nuptial blessing, etc.) take place as indicated in The Order of Celebrating Matrimony. However, the prayers of Mass—Collect, Prayer over the Offerings, Preface, and Prayer after Communion—are taken from the liturgical day rather than the Ritual Mass for the Celebration of Marriage. The Solemn Blessing may be taken from the Ritual Mass for Matrimony or from the liturgical day. *The readings from Sacred Scripture are taken from the liturgical day, the second reading may be replaced with a selection from the set of readings provided for Matrimony. On these days, the Gloria is said within Mass according to the rubrics of the liturgical day. Likewise, the Creed is said within Mass according to the rubrics of the liturgical day.

Matrimony outside Mass may be celebrated any day also avoiding Holy Week insofar as possible. The celebration of Marriage on Friday of the Passion of the Lord and Holy Saturday is to be avoided altogether. The liturgical day has no impact on the prayers and readings, which are always taken from The Order of Celebrating Matrimony.

Notable Fridays & Saturdays and Other Important Dates in 2025

- † Sunday April 13 – Thursday April 17, 2025 · Palm Sunday and Weekdays of Holy Week | Matrimony should generally be avoided on these days.
- † Friday April 18, 2025 · Good Friday | Matrimony may not be celebrated within Mass and is to be avoided altogether outside Mass. Saturday April 19, 2025 · Holy Saturday | Matrimony may not be celebrated within Mass and is to be avoided altogether outside Mass.
- † Friday April 25, 2025 & Saturday April 26, 2025 · Friday & Saturday within the Octave of Easter | Matrimony may be celebrated on these days, but when it takes place within Mass, the prayers and readings must be from the liturgical day (except one reading from Matrimony).

“Other Masses for the Dead or ‘daily’ Masses, may be celebrated on weekdays in Ordinary Time on which Optional Memorials occur or when the Office is of the weekday, provided such Masses are actually applied for the dead” (GIRM 381).

PROPER SOLEMNITIES, FEASTS, & MEMORIALS

Background & Celebration

Proper Memorials are days that are observed as memorials in a specific place, such as a nation, a local diocese, or a parish. For the area in which a proper memorial is observed, the day is celebrated as an obligatory memorial, even if the day has a lesser rank (e.g. optional memorial) on the General Roman Calendar.

Proper Feasts are days that are observed as feasts in a specific place, even if the day has a lesser rank (e.g. memorial) in the General Roman Calendar. For Mass:

- † The Gloria is sung, even on weekdays in Advent and Lent.
- † The Liturgy of the Word includes a Reading from the Old Testament or New Testament, a Responsorial Psalm, an Alleluia (or Gospel Acclamation in Lent), and a Gospel. The readings are drawn from the readings of the saint's day.

Proper Solemnities are days that are observed as solemnities in a specific place, even if the day has a lesser rank (e.g. feast or memorial) in the General Roman Calendar. For Mass:

- † The Gloria is sung or said, even on weekdays in Advent and Lent.
- † The Liturgy of the Word includes an Old Testament Reading (or a reading from Acts of the Apostles or Revelation during Easter Time), a Responsorial Psalm, a New Testament Reading, an Alleluia (or Gospel Acclamation during Lent), and a Gospel. The readings are drawn from the readings of the saint's day. If only one reading prior to the Gospel is provided for the saint's day, then one is chosen from the appropriate Commons, keeping intact the structure of Old Testament (or Acts/Rv during Easter Time), then New Testament, and finally Gospel.
- † The Creed is sung or said.
- † The Prayers are taken from the saint's day and, where necessary, the corresponding Commons.

For Liturgy of the Hours on Proper Solemnities, Evening Prayer I may be celebrated the evening prior, with texts taken from the appropriate Commons.

Proper Solemnities, which are the most common type of "proper celebration" at the level of the Parish, may be observed in any liturgical season, except on the following days: Sundays of Advent, Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary (December 8), Nativity of the Lord (Christmas), Mary Holy Mother of God (January 1), Epiphany, Ash Wednesday, Sundays of Lent, Saint Joseph Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary (March 19), Annunciation of the Lord (March 25), Weekdays of Holy Week from Monday up to and including Thursday, Paschal Triduum of the Passion and Resurrection of the Lord, Days within the Octave of Easter, Sundays of Easter, Ascension, Pentecost, Most Holy Trinity, Corpus Christi, Sacred Heart of Jesus, Nativity of John the Baptist (June 24), Saints Peter and Paul (June 29), Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary (August 15), All Saints (November 1), Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (November 2), Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe (34th Sunday in Ordinary Time).

The Anniversary of Dedication is a proper solemnity for a Parish. It is observed on the date on which the Parish's church building was solemnly dedicated. Prayers are taken from the "Common of the Dedication of a Church, I. In the Church that was Dedicated." Readings are taken from the same Common (Lectionary, nos. 701-706 [vol. 4]). It is to be noted that the date of dedication is usually distinct from the date of the parish's founding. The Office of Divine Worship, in collaboration with the Diocesan Archives, is currently compiling all known dates of dedication for parish church buildings in the Diocese of Arlington. If your parish does not have a date of dedication listed below and you have a record of the date, please contact the Office of Divine Worship.

A "Titular Solemnity" is a proper solemnity for a Parish related to the "title" of the Parish's dedicated church building. This proper solemnity is observed on the liturgical day that most closely corresponds with the "title." For churches named after the Blessed Virgin Mary, the most appropriate liturgical day is chosen: for example, August 22nd, the Queenship of Mary, for Queen of Apostles (Alexandria, VA). If no clear day is indicated, then a suitable day may be designated by the diocesan bishop. While the "title" of a church building is a technical designation that is not required by law to correspond to the Parish's patron saint, in the Diocese of Arlington every Parish church's title is identical to its principal patron saint. Therefore, the "Titular Solemnity" coincides with the patronal feast day. In Parishes in which the title corresponds to a day already observed as a solemnity (for example, St Mary of the Immaculate Conception, Fredericksburg, VA), no additional liturgical observances are added to the solemnity. However, prayer for the parish community may fittingly be highlighted through the homily, intentions of the Prayer of the Faithful, and selection of music.

Proper Feast of the Anniversary of the Dedication of the Cathedral of Saint Thomas More · December 9*

Within the Diocese of Arlington, December 9 is observed as a feast (except in the Cathedral itself, which observes this day as a solemnity). *In 2024, the observance is transferred to December 10, since the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception falls on December 9.

- † The Gloria is sung.
- † Prayers are from the "Common of the Dedication of a Church, II. Outside the Church that was Dedicated" (except in the Cathedral itself, in which case prayers are taken from the "Common of the Dedication of a Church, I. In the Church that was Dedicated").
- † The readings are from the "Common of the Dedication of a Church, Anniversary of Dedication" (Lectionary, nos. 701-706 [vol. 4]). The following are recommended: Reading, 1 Kings 8:22-23, 27-30 or Ephesians 1:29-22; Responsorial Psalm, Psalm 84:3, 4, 5 and 1, 11 (R/. "How lovely..." or "Here God lives..."); Alleluia Verse, Ezekiel 37:27; Gospel, John 4:19-24.

Proper Memorial of Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton, Secondary Patroness of the Diocese · January 4

January 4th is already observed as an obligatory Memorial in the Dioceses of the United States of America.

Proper Feast of Saint Thomas More, Principal Patron of the Diocese · June 22*

Within the Diocese of Arlington, June 22nd is observed as a feast.

- † The Gloria is sung.
- † It is permissible to adapt the collect in the following manner:
O God, who in martyrdom
have brought true faith to its highest expression, graciously grant
that, strengthened through the intercession
of Saint Thomas More,
we may confirm by the witness of our life
the faith we profess with our lips.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.
- † The readings are from St Thomas More (Lectionary, no. 585): Reading, 1 Peter 4:12-19; Responsorial Psalm, Psalm 126:1bc-2ab, 2cd-3, 4-5, 6 (R/. 126:5); Alleluia Verse, Matthew 5:10; Gospel, Matthew 10:34-39.

Since June 22, 2025 falls on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of the Lord, it is not observed in the diocese in 2025. The Patronal Solemnity at the Cathedral is transferred to Monday June 23, 2025.
