

Confidentiality Quiz

Do the following statements outline situations where confidentiality is respected, compromised or is not applicable? Indicate in the space provided for each statement an "R" for respected, a "C" for compromised or "N/A" for not applicable.

- ___1. An enthusiastic crew has placed a "WorkCamp" sign in the window of their van driven to and parked on site.
- ___2. The local press ran an article about a specific family that had their home repairs done by WorkCamp. The family had given permission.
- ___3. Personal information about a resident is mentioned publicly by a crew member during the community celebration.
- ___4. Two adults, while waiting for the showers, discuss privileged information about their respective residents.
- ___5. Two high school youth overhear privileged information about projects being shared by two adults at the shower and do not repeat it to the rest of their crew.
- ___6. Residents of the homeless shelter were notified that the WorkCampers were coming to host a party so that they could decide in advance if they wanted to participate; photographs of children were taken without parental permission.
- ___7. Videotaping of a site is scheduled after permission is granted from the resident. Care was given not to videotape anything which would identify the owner or the site as she had requested.
- ___8. A WorkCamper, on site, is overheard saying to a reporter, "This family is really poor. The dad lost his job and the house is in such bad shape that this is a great site to work on!"
- ___9. An adult member of a crew recognizes a person in the homeless shelter and later tells his or her family about it.
- ___10. A WorkCamper, after returning home, told everything about the residents to his or her best friend. Together they visit the family in August.
- ___11. An adult leader reports a suspected case of child abuse to a referring agency contact.
- ___12. Exterior photographs, with identifying landmarks, were taken of a resident's home by the contractor when the repairs were completed.

(Make up your own!)

---

---

---

Answers to Confidentiality Quiz

Do the following statements outline situations where confidentiality is respected, compromised or is not applicable? Indicate in the space provided for each statement an "R" for respected, a "C" for compromised or "N/A" for not applicable.

- C 1. An enthusiastic crew has placed a "WorkCamp" sign in the window of their van driven to and parked on site.
- R 2. The local press ran an article about a specific family that had their home repairs done by WorkCamp. The family had given permission.
- C 3. Personal information about a resident is mentioned publicly by a crew member during the community celebration.
- C 4. Two adults, while waiting for the showers, discuss privileged information about their respective residents.
- R 5. Two high school youth overhear privileged information about projects being shared by two adults at the shower and do not repeat it to the rest of their crew.
- C 6. Residents of the homeless shelter were notified that the WorkCampers were coming to host a party so that they could decide in advance if they wanted to participate; photographs of children were taken without parental permission.
- R 7. Videotaping of a site is scheduled after permission is granted from the resident. Care was given not to videotape anything which would identify the owner or the site as she had requested.
- C 8. A WorkCamper on site is overheard saying to a reporter, "This family is really poor. The dad lost his job and the house is in such bad shape that this is a great site to work on!"
- C 9. An adult member of a crew recognizes a person in the homeless shelter and later tells his or her family about it.
- C 10. A WorkCamper, after returning home, told everything about the residents to his or her best friend. Together they visit the family in August.
- N/A 11. An adult leader reports a suspected case of child abuse to a referring agency contact.
- C 12. Exterior photographs, with identifying landmarks, were taken of a resident's home by the contractor when the repairs were completed.

(Make up your own!)

---

---

---